BRIEFLY ABOUT ME

Character Designer, Revisionist capturing design, emotion, essential to animation and illustration work. Can apply story development, cinematography, and editing to boards that show the flow of animation and map out key scenes. Able to implement character acting with room for problem solving and story development as long-lasting personal goals. Script, plan, and create animated narrative sequences under tight deadlines, using Photoshop, Storyboard Pro, and hand drawing techniques. Recognized for strong design, gesture skills and character emotion within plot
